Annex 4: Stakeholder Mapping

Using a stakeholder mapping process, we have identified over 50 local and 115 additional national and international stakeholders. The same mapping process also enables us to understand issues of interest, define appropriate engagement strategies, and respond to the dynamic changes to various government ministries in Ecuador. Both at the national and local level, the Company reviews the stakeholder maps on a regular basis.

A summary of our stakeholder map is presented below and available on our website: www.lundingold.com.

Stakeholder Group	Title	Location/Comment
Local Communities	Direct job opportunities, broader economic growth, environmental and water quality impacts, infrastructure improvements, moral fabric	Frequent roundtable dialogue, access to our locally based staff, grievance mechanism, meetings with local leaders
Civil Society	Infrastructure improvements, environmental stewardship, broader environmental, social, and economic risks and opportunities	Frequent meetings with local leaders, institutional memberships, events, media, grievance mechanism, brochures, sustainability reporting
Indigenous Groups	Preserving identity and culture, extreme poverty, capacity building, infrastructure and economic development	The cooperation agreement between the Shuar Federation of Zamora Chinchipe and Aurelian Ecuador S.A. was updated in 2019, instituting regular meetings to address issues of common priority
Artisanal Miners	Respectful engagement, livelihood, environmental impacts, formalization	We have a small, dedicated team to help manage the formalization of artisanal miners. This team is in continuously available to and in contact with artisanal miners
Conservation Groups	Impact on environment and ecosystem services, strengthening biodiversity knowledge and offset policies in Ecuador	Collaboration agreements, site monitoring, frequent engagement with local communities through roundtable dialogue
Employees, Workers	Rewarding, meaningful and safe livelihood	Code of conduct, daily to weekly meetings, grievance mechanism
Suppliers	Access to supply chain opportunities	Roundtable dialogue, tender announcements, contractual relationships, targeted initiatives to improve the business practices of potential local suppliers
Religious Groups	Environmental and social impacts, local social infrastructure, education, moral fabric, vulnerable groups	Regular meetings, roundtable dialogue, participation in media activities operated by local church
Government Agencies, Ministries, Representatives	Economic development through responsible mining, capacity building, royalties, taxes and their distribution	Routinely through licensing, permitting, and monitoring activities (monthly to quarterly), roundtables, events, media
